OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER, CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF BANGALORE.

Notification dated 16th September 1953.

No. A1. (34)—52-53. The following Bye-laws framed by the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation under Section 367 (17) and (34) read with Section 369 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949 (Act No. LXIX of 1949), for the control and supervision of Slaughter Houses and of places used for skinning and cutting up of carcases; for the control and supervision of the methods of slaughtering; and for the control and supervision of butchers carrying on business in them and for securing cleanlines, safety and order in the Slaughter Houses in the City of Bangalore, and sanctioned by the Government of Mysore, under Section 370 of the said Act, in their Order No. L. 4106-9—C.M. 27-53-63, dated 7th July 1953, are published for general information. The sanctioned bye-laws will come into effect from 1st January 1954.

Bye-laws framed by the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation under Section 367 (17) and (34) read with Section 369 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949 (LXIX of 1949) for the control and supervision of Slaughter Houses and of places used for skinning and cutting up of carcasses; for the control and supervision of the methods of slaughtering; and for the control and supervision of butchers carrying on business in them and for securing cleanliness, safety and order in the slaughter Houses.—

1. No person shall use any place within the limits of the Bangalore Municipal Corporation for the slaughtering of sheep, goats, camels or pigs intended for human food except a municipal or licensed Slaughter House or places permitted by the Municipal Commissioner on special occasions.

2. The Veterinary Inspector in the employ of the Municipal Corporation shall be in the immediate charge of the Municipal Slaughter Houses. A person bringing an animal intended for slaughter to the Municipal Slaughter Houses shall present such animal for inspection to the Veterinary Inspector at the places set about for the purpose in the Slaughter Houses at least two hours before the slaughtering commences. The Veterinary Inspector shall carefully inspect and examine every animal brought for slaughter whether for private consumption or for sale to the public and satisfy himself that such animals are perfectly healthy before he admits them for slaughter. He shall see that no diseased sheep, goats, camels or pigs are slaughtered therein for food or their carcasses removed to the Municipal markets or other recognised or licensed places for sales.

3. The Veterinary Inspector whose duty is to inspect any animal presented for inspection shall reject any such animal which for any reason may appear to him unfit to be slaughtered for human food. The owner of the animal so rejected shall cause it to be forthwith removed from the Slaughter House premises.

4. A person shall not under any circumstances pass or attempt to pass into the inner yard of the Slaughter House any animal which has not been inspected and passed as fit to be slaughtered.

5. No person shall bring into the Slaughter House a dying or dead animal. If such animal is brought for slaughter, the Veterinary Inspector shall seize and destroy them at the cost of the owner of such animal.

N.B.—This bye-law shall not apply to the case of animal which has met with an accident rendering it unfit for further work if it is brought to the slaughter house immediately after the accident.

6. The hours prescribed for slaughtering the sheep, goat, or camel will be from 12 NOON to 7 P.M. and for slaughtering the pigs will be from 5 A.M. to 10 A.M.

7. The carcasses of all slaughtered animals shall be examined by the Veterinary Inspector. If any such carcass be found to be diseased, unsound or otherwise unfit for human consumption, it shall be seized, destroyed and disposed of so as to prevent its being used for human food or exposed for sale, at the expense of the owner or person in charge of the carcass at the time of the seizure. Except in cases of contagious or infectious diseases, the skin of the animal shall remain the property of the owner.

8. All animals are to be slaughtered in such a manner as will not cause unnecessary pain or suffering and in dressing any carcass or portion of a carcass, the meat shall not be subjected to the process of 'blowing' or 'Fooku' by any person.

9. No person shall rub or cause to be rubbed the inner sides of the skin upon the ground in any part of the
